Emojinary Voices

for female amateur choir

Commissioned by Zembla Music

Duration 4'

2020

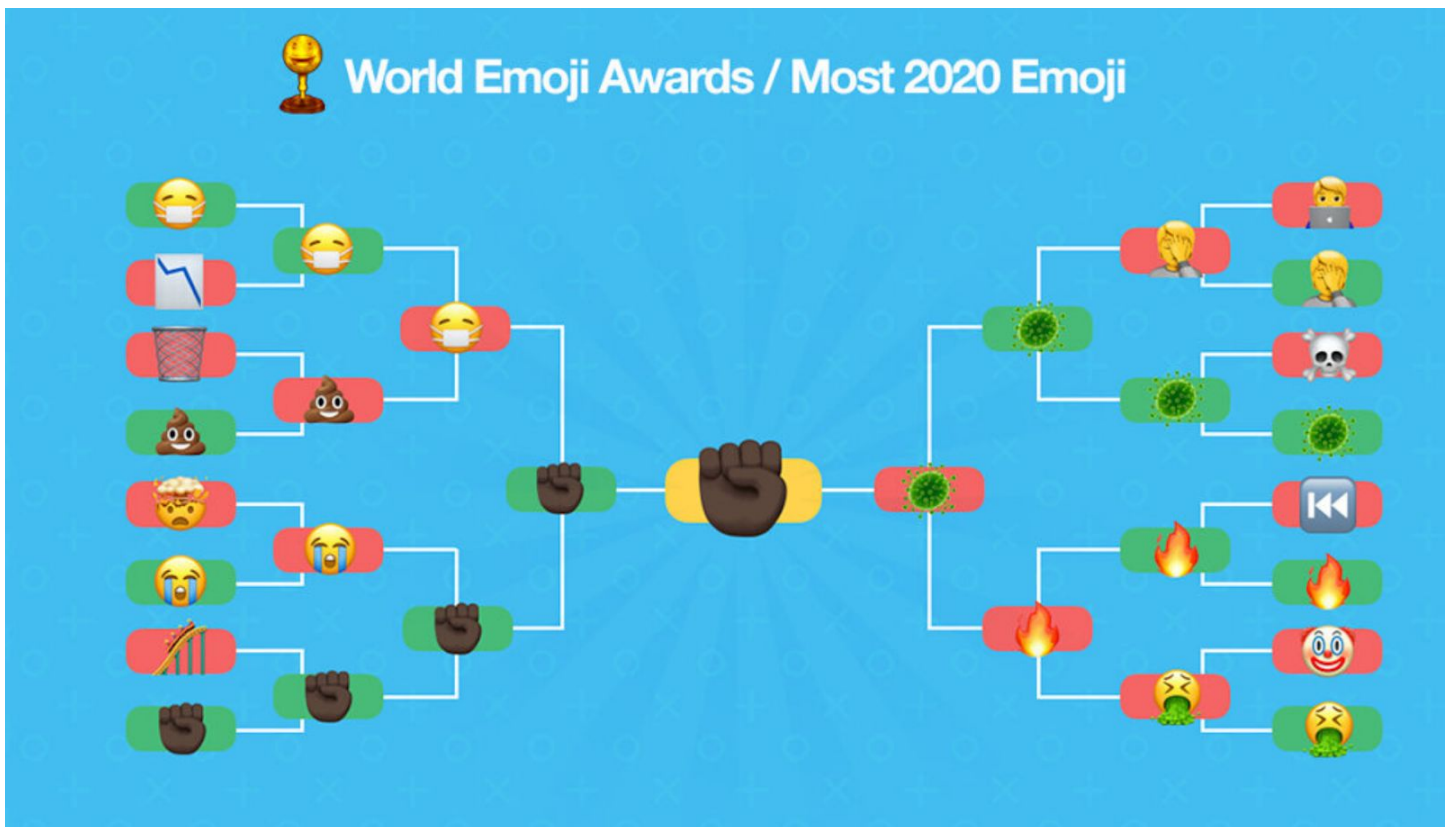

Emojinary Voices for female amateur choir is a composition based on statistics and some imagination. Composition echoes the present moment, captured by the World Emoji Awards 2020. Most used 2020 digital images such as anxiety, digital overdose, anger and protest are transformed into singing voices.

2020 / Most 2020 Emoji

Determined by popular vote, we asked — which emoji best represents the year of 2020. Nominees were gathered by user choice on Twitter. Voting took place in brackets from early July, with the winner determined on July 17.

Thousands of people took part, with the final vote seeing the Raised Fist emoji (used to represent the #BlackLivesMatter movement) alongside the Microbe emoji (used when discussing the Coronavirus outbreak).

Emoji sound links should be seen as a guidance. Different interpretations are welcome.

For me the theatrical aspect of the work is really important. Please, bring in front more theatrical women to lead, give them freedom to be playful and go as far as they like/can.

Audience will be faced with all the voices, looking at their facial expressions (emoji) of each member. This is one of the aspects that I really like about human voice. How music changes our faces, how emotions and face expressions are imprinted with the sound.
